

Leave things as they are. If a change must be made, make Element 1 a requirement for Element 4. Technician should be an entry level license. Serious radio operators will increase their knowledge and skills and, as a result, EARN additional privileges. I vote NO to dropping CW but will compromise to dropping the requirement for the General Class license.